

Certificate Of Approval Of A Fibre Reinforcement

1. The purpose of this certificate is to provide a formal approval of the fibre reinforcement used in the construction of the structure. This certificate is issued to the contractor who has been responsible for the installation of the fibre reinforcement.

2. The fibre reinforcement used in the construction of the structure is of the type and grade specified in the technical specifications. The fibre reinforcement is of the type and grade specified in the technical specifications.